

The National League's Most Valuable Player in both 1982 and 1983, this sweet bastard made tuning in to SuperStation WTBS at :05 past the hour a national ritual and the Atlanta Braves "America's Team." A 7-time All-Star and 5-time Gold Glove winner whose baseball talent was exceeded only by his character and decency. The first person inducted into the Super 70s Sports Hall of Fame.